1) October 16th is World Food Day. As in years past, TFT Japan’s “1 Million Itadakimasu!” campaign is in full effect with over 20 events and limited edition products sold during the campaign period, which ends November 30th. 2&3) Pictures from a press conference in Tokyo. 4) The TFT Hong Kong team, led by Katy Yung, presented a training program to the HK Convention Exhibition Center (HKCEC) restaurant managers. HKCEC will add TFT dishes to four of their restaurants this November.

Number of meals shared to date (as of September 30th, 2012):
16,718,495 Meals

“When you dine at TABLE FOR TWO, you never dine alone.”

A number of World Food Day events were held in the U.S. as well. Top&5) In San Diego, California Kebab, a new TFT partner, hosted an event featuring trivia, locally brewed beer, and artwork by local students. 6) At Columbia University, students came together to discuss social entrepreneurship over healthy appetizers and drinks. 7&8) Students from three schools in the DC area gathered at American University. The evening included opening remarks from FAO staff, a colorful skit (see picture), a live video feed with TFT members in Japan and Vietnam, food prepared by TFT partners, and a tasting of posho, a common staple in East Africa used in many of TFT’s school meals. 9) Follow the two participants in the TFT Health Challenge (look for “TFT HealthChallenger” on Facebook) as they change their diets during the campaign towards a healthier lifestyle.

A Message From TABLE FOR TWO Executive Director Masa Kogure

World Food Day celebrations kicked off around the world, as TFT hosted dozens of events across Japan, the U.S., Vietnam, and the Philippines.

Food lies at the center of our lives, wherever we live. As we near the holiday season, let’s take this opportunity to share a meal across time and space.

Please come to our events, follow us on Facebook, and together send 1 million more meals by the end of November!

Our hearts go out to all who were affected by Hurricane Sandy in the U.S.
